SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. Institut fuer Wasserbau,* Berlin-Friedrichshagen, Mueggeldamm 336, telephone number 645796 has received an order for signal lights for canals. Until now the firm was limited to production of seacoast lights. It was requested that the signal lights be seen clearly from an angle of 10°.
2. There is no firm in the DDR calculating and making dioptric lenses. Zeiss is reported to have made one example which can only be used for seacoast lights. The firm VEB Ostland in Hohenau* did make some lenses, but with unsatisfactory results. It refuses, however, to make new models because, according to its claim, there is nobody in DDR who can make new calculations.

25X1A. * [REDACTED] Comment: This is not further identifiable in available references.
